

Special Membership Types

Senior Membership

Any member who shall have been an active member in good standing of one or more Kiwanis clubs for not less than ten years, and who is unable to meet attendance requirements because of health, business, or other extenuating circumstances, and who shall have not met such other conditions as may be prescribed by this club in these by laws, may be elected by the Board of Directors as a senior member upon making written application. The Board of Directors shall review the list of senior members not less than once each year and shall have authority, for such reasons as seem adequate, to terminate any such member from senior status to active status. A senior member must pay annual membership dues and shall be entitled to all privileges of club membership.

Honorary Membership

Any person who has performed some distinguished public service may be elected by the Board of Directors as an honorary member for a period of one year and thereafter may be re-elected annually. An honorary member shall not pay either a membership dues, and shall be entitled to all privileges of club membership, except those of voting and holding office. An honorary member shall be a paid subscriber to the official publication of Kiwanis International. An honorary member shall not be obligated to attend club meetings.

Lifetime Member

A member may be determined to be a lifetime member at the discretion of the Board of Directors. The special membership status is based on extraordinary achievement and longtime dedication to the club. The member will not pay membership dues and shall be entitled to all privileges of club membership, except those of voting and holding office. A lifetime member shall be a paid subscriber to the official publication of Kiwanis International at the cost of the club.

Corporate Membership

A local business/corporation may find it convenient to involve more than one employee in the Kiwanis Club. In this circumstance, the corporation is the holder of the membership and will designate an employee to attend. The designated member will act as the primary member, but may need to send an alternate person from the business/corporation in their absence. The alternate person will not vote or hold office in the club. All attendees will need to comply with a background check by Safe Hiring Solutions at time of admission to the Kiwanis Club. The application fee will be $80.00 and annual membership will be $500.00 or $125.00/ quarter. Additional expenses of meals will be billed as they may occur.

Affiliate Membership

Occasionally an individual may wish to join the Kiwanis Club in a limited capacity. This membership is only available to new members. The affiliate member pays an annual membership fee equal to the cost of supporting membership, which includes International dues, insurance, District dues, Division dues, etc. ($150 annually). Application for membership will be submitted with an application fee ($80). The member may not hold a position of officer or vote for the officers. The affiliate members' activity status must be reviewed annually by the Board of Directors. The affiliate member will be responsible for cost of luncheon or holiday meals as attended.

All membership types will be reviewed annually prior to September and revised as necessary by general membership and Board of directors.
